The renter must ensure that the rental items are ready for collection. If the renter prevents the collection of rental items through fault, the lessor may charge for additional effort. Self-collectors are advised that rental items may only be transported in suitable, enclosed vehicles. In case of delayed payment, the lessor reserves the right to withhold delivery or retrieve already delivered rental items prematurely.

6. LIABILITY & USAGE

If the rental items are damaged or lost, the renter may be held liable for the replacement value or repair costs, as long as these do not exceed the replacement value. The lessor's claims for further damages and rent payment remain unaffected. The renter's liability begins with the takeover of the items and ends upon their return to the lessor. For trade fair orders, liability begins with delivery to the exhibition stand and ends upon collection, even if the stand is unattended. Unless another collection date is agreed upon, liability ends 24 hours after the event's conclusion. The lessor is not liable for property damage or personal injury caused by the use of the rental items unless due to intent or gross negligence.

7. INSURANCE

The rental items are not insured, and the renter is obliged to insure them against theft. The lessor requires immediate proof of the completed insurance.

8. CANCELLATION

Orders can be canceled up to 14 days before the event or the agreed delivery date. In the event of later cancellations, the full rental fee is due. However, if re-rental is possible, the customer will only be responsible for the costs incurred up to that point. If the lessor cannot provide an equivalent or superior replacement, the renter has the right to withdraw from justified complaints.

9. JURISDICTION

The place of performance for both renter and lessor is the location of the lessor's headquarters. If the renter is a merchant, the lessor's headquarters shall also be the place of jurisdiction. German law applies, including for transactions with foreign accounts.
